Elevated Living, Inspired by Nature

1–3 Bedroom Condominiums · Duplexes & Penthouses Available · Cherngtalay, Phuket Where the serenity of nature meets futuristic form, this project redefines the art of vertical villa living in Phuket's most desirable enclave. Just minutes from the lifestyle-rich heart of Cherngtalay, this visionary development invites residents into a rarefied world where architecture mimics the elegance of the manta ray and every curve flows with natural intention. Conceived around the concept of a "Villa of Higher Heaven," this project blends Old English heritage with elevated, modern aesthetics crafted for those who value both privacy and presence.

A Design-Forward Sanctuary

Set within lush, tropical surroundings, each residence is meticulously designed to feel like a private retreat. From 1-bedroom sanctuaries to expansive duplexes and penthouses, the layouts embrace openness, light, and seamless indoor-outdoor connection. Verticality becomes an experience not just a structure ushering in breezes, vistas, and the luxury of height. Every unit is finished with high-end materials and contemporary touches that reflect Botanica's signature craftsmanship.

Lifestyle Beyond the Ordinary

At the heart of the development lies a coral reef-inspired pool zone a visual and experiential centerpiece that sets the tone for a lifestyle of ease and elegance. Residents enjoy access to a thoughtfully curated suite of resort-style amenities:

- Central Swimming Pool & Tranquil Garden Spaces An oasis designed for quiet moments and social connection.
- Expansive Clubhouse Featuring a vibrant party pool, co-working lounge, fitness studio, yoga space, and an open-air lobby deck.
- Kids' Pool Zone A safe, joyful space tailored for family living.
- Nature-Infused Living Meandering pathways and shaded jogging trails weave through the property, inviting movement and mindfulness in equal measure.
