Property overview

Set directly on the shoreline of Phang Nga Bay within the prestigious Cape Yamu Estate, this absolute beachfront villa is a rare architectural collaboration by Philippe Starck and Jean-Michel Gathy. Conceived as a modern Thai sanctuary, the villa blends sculptural design with a calm coastal setting, where sunrise over limestone karsts and the rhythm of the sea define daily life. At the heart of the home, a soaring vaulted living pavilion opens seamlessly onto a broad ocean-facing terrace. A 30-metre infinity pool with swim-up bar, shaded dining sala, and level beachfront lawn create a private resort environment designed for both entertaining and quiet retreat. Interiors are warm and restrained, featuring hand-crafted elements, northern Thai artworks, and curated furnishings that balance craftsmanship with contemporary elegance. Four ensuite bedrooms, including a secluded master suite, enjoy uninterrupted sea views through floor-to-ceiling glass. A versatile media room offers flexibility as a fifth bedroom or children's den. The villa is fully equipped with modern entertainment systems, Western and chef's kitchens, and discreet service areas that support effortless living. Residents benefit from gated security and privileged access to the five-star facilities of COMO Point Yamu. Located just 20 minutes from Phuket International Airport and within easy reach of marinas, golf courses, and fine dining, this is a beachfront home defined by architectural pedigree, privacy, and a direct connection to the sea. PROPERTY FEATURES:
