Property overview

One of 26 luxury residences in The Cape, an elegant private community in Phuket, Yamu One is the largest and most lavish. The villa's ten bedrooms and gorgeous living areas are spread over three levels and acres of landscaped gardens leading down to the beach. Views across Phang Nga Bay are breathtaking, especially when the sea and sky are bathed in golden light at sunrise. The estate includes a gym, games and media room, dining room with guest kitchen, spa, putting green and boathouse with a yoga deck. Reflecting its location on the doorstep of Phuket's marine delights, Yamu One's beauty and tranquility are enhanced by carefully designed water features throughout. Along with its dreamy 24-meter lava-rock swimming pool are reflecting pools and a waterfall wall. Thoughtful and generous design extends throughout the villa, conceived by an acclaimed design team that includes Tim Beaumont and architect Jean-Michel Gathy, best known for his iconic Aman resort designs. Yamu One's style is contemporary and deceptively simple with calming tones and no superfluous adornments.
