Property overview

Set within the lush, established grounds of The Chava, this rare ground-floor residence offers a sense of privacy and ease that is seldom found so close to the shoreline. Just moments from Surin Beach with direct side access, this is a home designed for those who value both quiet seclusion and effortless connection to one of Phuket's most coveted stretches of sand. The apartment unfolds across approximately 208 square metres of thoughtfully designed space, where indoor and outdoor living blend seamlessly. Floor-to-ceiling openings invite natural light into the open-plan living and dining areas, which extend naturally onto a private terrace framed by tropical greenery. Here, a secluded pool and garden create a calm, intimate setting ideal for slow mornings or relaxed evenings under the palms. The architecture is timeless and understated, favouring clean lines and proportion over excess. Interiors feel generous and grounded, with a layout that prioritises flow and livability. A private entrance enhances the sense of independence, giving the residence the feel of a standalone villa within a fully serviced resort. Both bedrooms are well-appointed, with the primary suite offering direct access to the outdoor space and a tranquil, garden-facing outlook. The second bedroom provides flexibility for guests or family, supported by equally refined bathroom finishes. The unit remains one of Surin's most established and respected addresses, known for its mature landscaping, discreet atmosphere, and resort-level amenities. Positioned near Amanpuri and within easy reach of beach clubs, fine dining, and boutique shopping, the location balances exclusivity with convenience. This is a rare opportunity to secure a ground-floor private pool residence in a tightly held development just steps from Surin Beach.
