Property overview

A modern sanctuary designed for quiet luxury and effortless living where indoor elegance meets the calming rhythm of nature.

Tucked within the tranquil enclave of Pasak, just minutes from the vibrant heart of Laguna and Bang Tao Beach, this newly built Garden Villa redefines tropical living with a refined, design-forward approach. Here, the architecture breathes with the land, open, flowing, and softened by layers of lush greenery. Privacy is purposeful, and every detail has been considered for the way you actually live. Step through the entrance and into light-filled volumes that blur the boundary between interior and exterior. Full-height sliding glass walls dissolve into the landscape, inviting in breezes and natural light while connecting every space with the surrounding garden. The 48-square-meter pool acts as a serene centerpiece, surrounded by 232 square meters of open-plan living that transitions seamlessly from day to night. Thoughtfully positioned for peace and seclusion, each villa is a private world of its own. Acoustic insulation and natural buffering ensure an atmosphere of quiet retreat — whether you're hosting guests or simply enjoying the stillness.

Architectural harmony meets everyday livability.

Spanning 620.54 square meters of total built space, the home is organized around flow, both visual and spatial. The main living areas open wide to the outdoors, while the bedrooms remain gently tucked away for rest and privacy. The master suite is a haven in itself, with garden views, generous proportions, and a spa-style ensuite. Three additional bedrooms, plus a multi-use room perfect for office, gym, or fifth bedroom, provide flexibility for families or long-stay guests.

Crafted for comfort, engineered for calm.

From acoustic control and thermal flow to covered parking for two vehicles, every inch of the property is designed to support a life of ease. Landscape design is not an afterthought — it's integral to the experience, with 399 square meters of layered greenery softening sightlines and offering year-round beauty.

Location, reimagined.

Set in the desirable Pasak area of Phuket, the villa places you within easy reach of international schools, beach clubs, marinas, and the acclaimed dining and shopping of the Laguna lifestyle zone. Yet once inside, the world gently falls away.
